

Asset Management— Processing, Asset Configuration

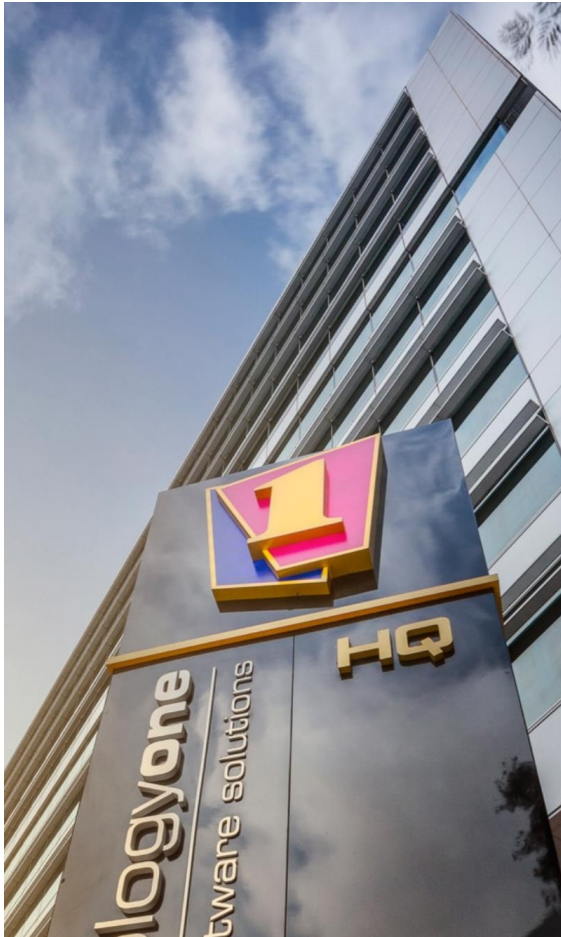

OBJECTIVES

At the completion of the learning you will be able to:

- Explain asset functionality
- Search and enquire on assets
- Identify the data held on an asset and where it resides on an asset record
- Explain the differences between register types
- Create asset records and templates
- Apply asset meter updates
- Plan asset record creation for their organisation's application
- Complete the asset import function

Asset Management— Processing, Asset Configuration

OBJECTIVES

At the completion of the learning you will be able to:

- Identify & review different configuration options for systems and registers
- Differentiate the Asset 'setup' functions and their capability
- Interpret current systems configuration
- Design and implement an Asset System
- Design and implement an Asset Register
- Operate Asset Register and Systems as an administrator
- Identify and create different types of relationships